Louis Gillespie Wins Challenge Event in Mixed Bonspiel

Alex. Wright Wins Second Event

The mixed bonspiel, which was played under very mixed weather conditions last week was concluded on Saturday night, when the final games in the two events were played off. In the final of the Challenge event Louis Gillespie defeated Chris Willeson in a game which had to be decided by an extra end. In the second event, Alex. Wright defeated Warren McDonald in a closely contested game.

Charts of the two events will be found on page four.

Bobby Burns' Night Celebration Enjoyed

The whist drive and dance given under the auspices of Somme Chapter O.E.S., celebrating Bobbie Burn's night, was well attended and proved a very popular event. Prizes in the whist drive were won by Mrs. J. B. Lowe and Mr. J. J. Purcell. The consolation prizes were won by Mrs. R. E. Gillespie and Mr. Sam McLean.

During the evening appropriate vocal numbers given by Mr. and Mrs. Nisbet (solos and duets) and Mr. J. W. Robinson (solo) all numbers being greatly appreciated. Mr. Robinson also gave two amusing recitations. Good music for dance was played by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neid, Art Horne and Bob Nisbet, the latter on the drums and miscellaneous contraptions, having a bang-up time. Once during the evening when he ran out of things to strike in his vicinity, he hit the middle of the dance floor with one of his sticks. Mon, 'twas a gran' nicht, Ye ken.

Ice Carnival Enjoyed Oyen Rinks Win McPherson Cup

The ice carnival, twice postponed on account of mild weather, was held Monday evening and proved a most enjoyable affair for all who attended. A well arranged program of races provided good entertainment for the spectators and sport for the young competitors many of whom showed great promise of becoming very capable artists on skates. Paul Kornichenko gave a great exhibition of barrel jumping, clearing a number of barrels with ease and grace. His younger brother Jack was second and Ernest Trewin third in this event. In the open race for men, Jimmy Lees was first and Roy Sharp second, both skaters giving a fine exhibition of sustained speed. In the mixed open race Minnie Thygesen and Roy Sharp were first. Ten other events were run off for children and young people. The following were judged winners of the costume prizes: Children's section; Margaret Belle Lees, Beth Gibson and Pearl Morrell; Donald McKay, Geo. Lees and Billy Neid. Ladies section: Wilda Caswell. In the men's section Walter Peterson was the winner.

The skating rink committee are to be congratulated on the success of the undertaking and the hope is generally expressed that the ice carnival will be an annual event.
